GRAND CRU CLASSE
Médoc & Sauternes
Bordeaux

The 1855 Classification was created to present the most famous Bordeaux wines at the Paris Universal exhibition, at the request of Emperor NAPOLEON III. The responsibility for drawing it up was given by the Bordeaux Chamber of Commerce to the "Bordeaux Trade Brokers".

The idea was to establish a classification based on many years of trade experience, which was the recognition for each estate of its Terroir and reputation. Naturally, the information came from the most reliable sources.

Published on April 18, 1855, the Classification was therefore the confirmation of a market reality and its evolution over more than a century.

The gala dinner on Friday 23rd of September, after the golf competition, is held at Château Giscours astonishing first by its size, then by its spectacular surroundings: a magnificent park, a lush forest, and vineyards covering a hundred hectare which makes a magical setting in the heart of Margaux.

Two private châteaux visits are organised during this exceptional stay to enjoy the vibrant activity during harvesting and enjoy an exclusive wine-tasting followed by an harvesting lunch with wine-pairing.

On Thursday 22nd of September in the morning : a château in the Medoc region.

On Saturday 23rd of September in the morning: a château in the Sauternes region.

"Sylvie : I was born in France, my mother is from Northern Spain (Santander) but I spent much of my early life travelling, including 13 years living and working in the UK. My grandmother was from Bordeaux, and from an early age she developed a passion for cooking. Like her before me, I love calling Bordeaux home."

Lucius : "I was born in Northern Ireland and I can't remember a day when I didn't want to play golf. With a handicap of 12, I'm now lucky enough to spend a large percentage of my time 'researching' the best courses to share with you. It's a tough job, but someone has to do it! I also provide a private chauffeur service and have a qualification in wine (WSET2)
